

September 10, 2011

We are starting to “name” various trails.

The Timberwolf Trail (AKA, ROLLER COASTER TRAIL) is a fun trail, short, sweet, hard to beat.

We haven't named this trail yet. We have marked the trees with pink paint and it is a good trail.

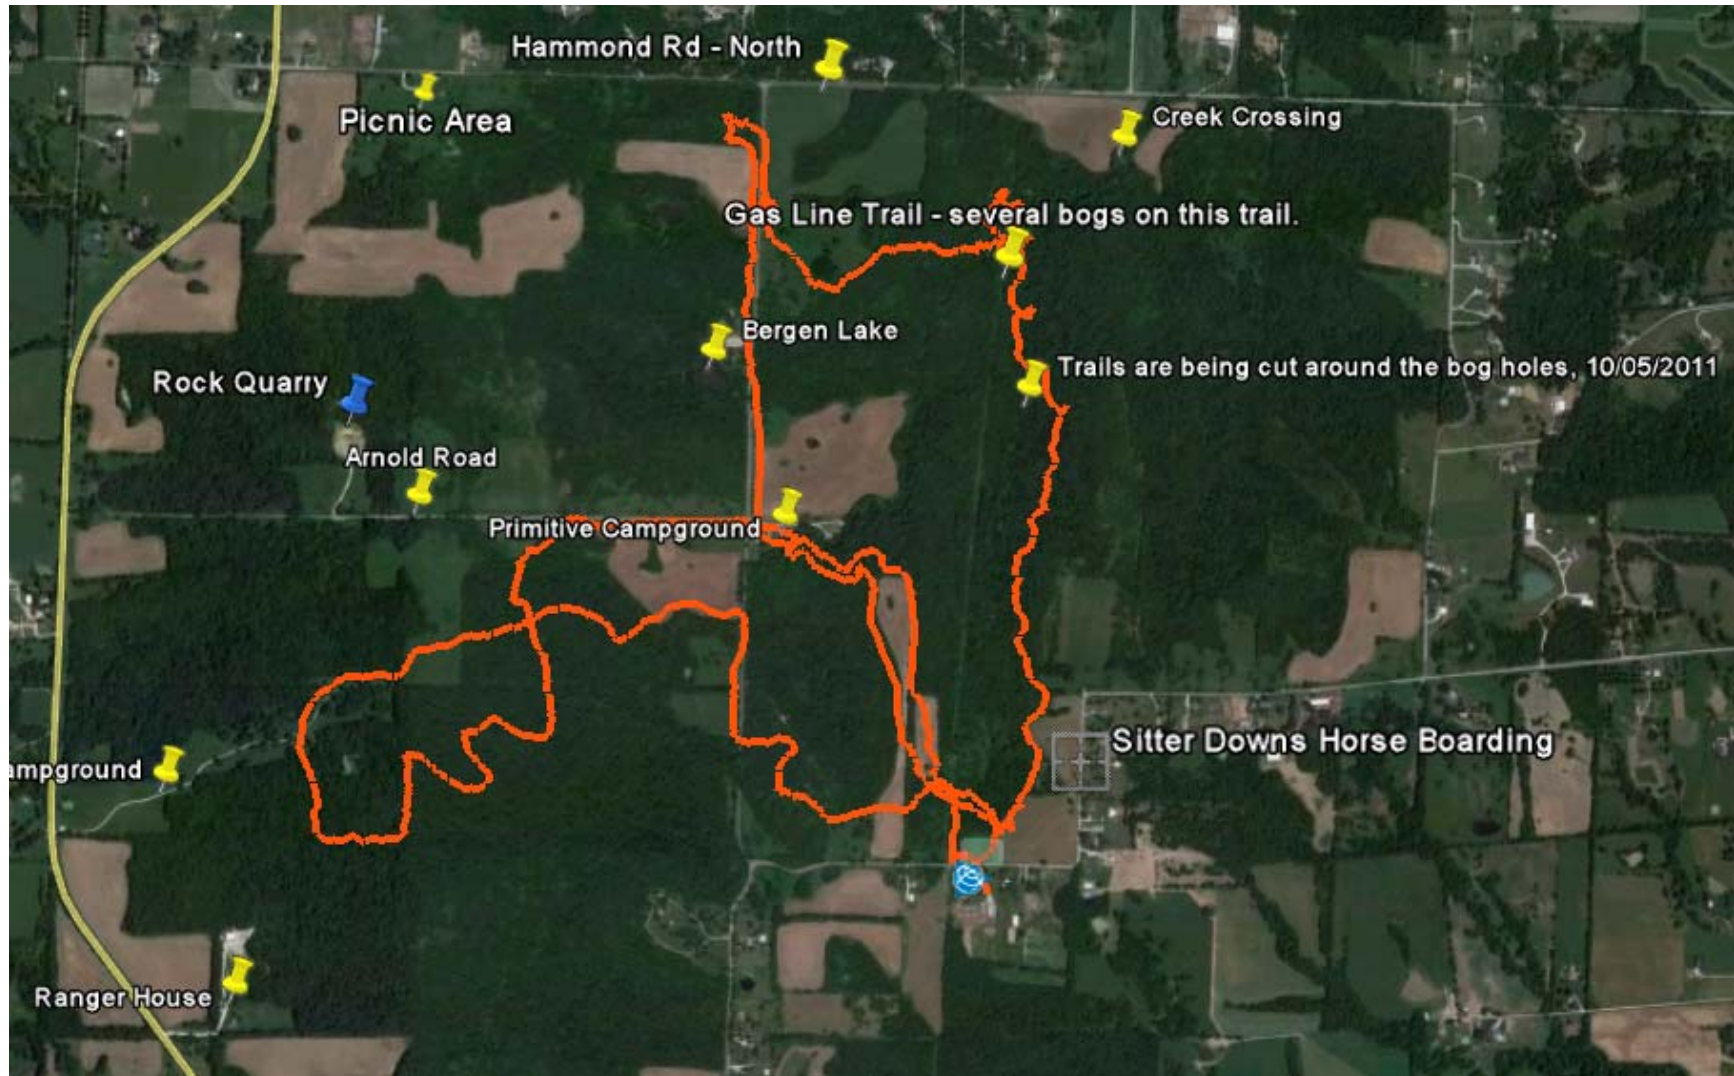

There are many trails north of Arnold Road to Hammond Rd. In addition, Arnold Rd is a dead end road; no TRAFFIC. If you have gaited horses, it's a fun road to ride on.

The Gas Line Trail has MANY BOGS in it. We intend on cutting new trails around those bogs in the fall. That trail is east of Brown Road.

October 5, 2011, 7.1 miles. Trails are being cut around the “bogs” on the Gas Line Trail.

October 15, 2011 - Some of the trails that are being named.

